Concerns: Training program « Practical courses of Swiss law to solve problems of daily life» - 2016

Ladies and gentlemen,

« Attorney-Network », www.attorney-network.net, a legal and financial service created by the « Exchange and Cooperation Centre for Latin America – ECCLA » has the pleasure to announce the training program of extension courses «Practical courses of Swiss law to solve problems of daily life», including :

- Family law: separation / divorce: How to react in front of conflicts of the couple?
- Criminal law: How to face a criminal procedure derived of a complaint, a traffic accident, a domestic violence and others?
- Law of foreigners: What are the procedures for the obtaining of authorizations of stay?
- Prosecution and bankruptcy: How to deal with private and public creditors?
- Labour law: What defences are available in front of dismissal?

The sessions of two hours will approach cases of the practical life according to the legal procedures in force and will be provided by lawyers registered on the Swiss bars. This training is targeted to anyone interested with or without legal training. It will be given in Geneva, in French.

You can register already for the courses of September-December 2016, according to the attached program.

Registration fee amount to CHF 200.00 by session of two hours including a snack and course material (models of legal acts).
